"Missing Amber: The Amber Hagerman Story" Documentary Trailer
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Zqer68iynrM>

This is where we got the video clips for the website. It gave us a good idea of what happened during Amber's kidnapping

“Missouri State Highway Patrol.” AMBER Alert History, www.msdp.dps.missouri.gov/MSHPWeb/PatrolDivisions/DDCC/AmberAlert/history.html.

The tragedy shocked and outraged the entire community. Residents contacted radio stations in the Dallas area and suggested they broadcast special "alerts" over the airwaves so that they could help prevent such incidents in the future. In response to the community's concern for the safety of local children, the Dallas/Fort Worth Association of Radio Managers teamed up with local law enforcement agencies in northern Texas and developed this innovative early warning system to help find abducted children. Statistics show that, when abducted, a child's greatest enemy is time.

Remember missing kids on milk cartons? Short-lived idea built long-term awareness <https://www.orlandosentinel.com/news/os-xpm-2010-01-05-1001040116-story.html>

This told us the background of the milk cartons and what they did and didn't do.

Team, CBSMiami.com. "Amber Alert Canceled After Missing Homestead Girls Found." CBS Miami, CBS Miami, 29 Jan. 2021,

This actually just happened yesterday after two girls were kidnapped and were last seen with 16-year-old Keon Kiser. "The Amber alert issued for 12-year-old Jazmine Brown and 13-year-old Markevia Wright, who had gone missing from the Homestead area on Monday, was canceled after the girls were found safe and sound on Friday night."
