

Annotated Bibliography

Primary Sources

Capper, Arthur. Addresses and Messages. Topeka, Capper Printing Co. This book is filled from cover to cover with Arthur Capper's Addresses and Messages. Some of these are about Arthur Capper's vision of the young in Kansas.

Smith, Edie. Interview. 20 Jan. 2020. This interview was a very important aspect of our project. It helped us get a lot of information on the history of the Capper Foundation and Arthur Capper himself. We learned how and when the Capper Foundation was established and why. We also learned a lot about current events that are happening at the Capper Foundation.

This black and white photograph shows U.S. Senator Arthur Capper holding the hand of a young girl with crutches and leg braces. As an advocate for children's welfare, in 1934 Capper used his resources to create the "Capper Foundation for Crippled Children" in Topeka, Kansas. Kansas Memory, www.kshs.org/index.php?url=km/items/view/227889. Accessed 16 Oct. 2019. This photograph is a good source because it shows Arthur Capper with one of the patients from the Capper Foundation. Both the girl and he look happy in this photo.

Secondary Sources

"Arthur Capper." Kansas Historical Society, www.kshs.org/kansapedia/arthur-capper/12001.

Accessed 2 Dec. 2019. The information we got from this website was useful. It told us about Arthur Capper's achievements in his life and told us about the agricultural clubs he established. We also read about why and when he started the Capper Foundation.

"Arthur Capper, Garnett, Topeka." Kansas Sampler Foundation, www.kansassampler.org/8wonders/peoplereults.php?id=330. Accessed 15 Oct. 2019.

This article gave us information on Arthur Capper himself and what events happened in his life. It starts by telling us Capper's date of birth, July 14, 1865. It also gives us information on his publishing, being the governor of Kansas, being a U.S. senator, and his lasting legacy of the Capper Foundation. The article ends with the day that he died, and some special landmarks of Arthur Capper in Garnett KS and Topeka KS. We were also able to use some of the photos that we found on this website in our project.

"Arthur Capper Memorial." Arthur Capper Memorial, www.kansastravel.org/arthurcapper.htm.

Accessed 12 Dec. 2019. This article provides information about what Arthur Capper did in his life, and pictures of his memorial in Topeka, Kansas. There is also a picture of his birth home, this picture is displayed next to his memorial. It talks a lot about the newspapers he wrote for and owned.

"Arthur Capper of Kansas." The Knoxville Focus, 31 Jan. 2016, knoxfocus.com/archives/this-weeks-focus/arthur-capper-of-kansas/. Accessed 18 Oct. 2019. This website had very important information that we used. It gave us a lot of details on Arthur Capper's political achievements and the events that lead up to the establishment of the Capper Foundation.

"Arthur Capper, the Businessman, Statesman and Philanthropist." Arthur Capper, the Businessman, Statesman and Philanthropist. This article was a very important source for us. It gave us the date of when the Capper Fund was created and why. The article also gave us a lot of information about Arthur Capper himself and what he did in his life. We also got some pictures from the article of Arthur Capper with his poultry clubs and some of the children that came to his Children's Day celebrations.

Capper Foundation. www.capper.org. Accessed 3 Oct. 2019. This is the Capper Foundation's website. It tells us the current things they are doing. It also has a timeline that shows what has happened in the organization from when it was founded in 1920, to the present day.

"Capper Foundation." Guide Star, www.guidestar.org/profile/48-0543745. Accessed 10 Oct.

2019. This Web site gave us information on what the Capper Foundation does and who they help with their services.

"Editorial: Here's to another century of Capper." CJ Online, www.cjonline.com/opinion/20190401/editorial-heres-to-another-century-of-capper. This website gave us information about when the Capper Foundation started and why Arthur Capper was motivated. It also gave us information about the current events happening with the Capper Foundation.

"The Life of Kansas Statesman Arthur Capper." Around Kansas, www.aroundkansas.com/the-life-of-kansas-statesman-arthur-capper/. Accessed 16 Dec.

2019. Interview. This interview provided lots of information about Arthur Capper. It told us about the newspaper jobs that he had and his political achievements.